

THE ENGLISH RIVIERA

Torquay is one of Britain's most famous resorts, situated at the heart of 22 miles of unspoilt coastline, often referred to as the 'English Riviera'. Torquay is characterized by its Mediterranean feel, created by its palm tree lined seafront, Italian style white villas perched high on the hillsides and fabulous yachts and boats moored in the popular marina. Fashionable since Victorian times and the former home of such figures as crime author Agatha Christie. This delightful tour takes you on the Paignton & Dartmouth Steam Railway to Dartmouth, the beautiful monastery of Buckfast Abbey, and the cathedral city of Exeter and maritime Plymouth.

ITINERARY

✈ FLY DIRECT FROM BELFAST

Wednesday

Check in at Belfast City airport for your flight to Exeter. On arrival, you visit Exeter for free time. Exeter is an ancient city with a vibrant, modern feel. This is reflected in its fascinating visitor attractions including its award-winning Royal Albert Memorial Museum and magnificent Exeter Cathedral. Later that day you will travel to Torquay for check in at your hotel.

Thursday

Today you will travel to the fishing port of Brixham, where you can spend time exploring this popular resort. Afterwards you will travel to Plymouth, where you can experience a thriving maritime city.

Friday

This morning after breakfast, you travel to Paignton, to join the steam train taking you along the Torbay Coast, and onto the superb scenery of the wooden slopes, bordering the Dart Estuary to Kingswear. On arrival, you join the raft and travel across the river, to the Olde world town of Dartmouth.

Saturday

You leave the hotel this morning to enjoy a tour of Dartmoor National Park, the largest and wildest area of open country in Southern England, stopping off in the charming market town of Tavistock, home to the popular Pannier Markets. Your tour continues stopping off at the Benedictine monastery of Buckfast Abbey with free time to explore.

Sunday

Today after checking out of the hotel, join your coach and travel to Exeter Airport to join the return flight to Belfast City Airport.
