

ROYAL HIGHLAND SHOW

bringing rural life to Edinburgh

Our 3 day trip gives you the chance to relax and enjoy a full day at Scotland's prestigious event. Each year thousands of people flock to the Royal Highland Show to see and taste the experience of the very best in farming, food and rural life. Visit the Riverside Museum, home to some of the world's finest cars, bicycles, ship models, trams and locomotives, interactive displays and the hugely popular historic Glasgow. Discover how 300 years of farming and rural home life have shaped and altered Scotland's countryside in the purpose-built museum with a visit to the National Museum of Rural Life, tour a period farmhouse for a sense of what living on a farm was really like more than 50 years ago.

ITINERARY

Wednesday

You meet your coach and travel to Belfast to join the early morning ferry crossing to Cairnryan. On arrival you travel towards Glasgow with a visit to the Riverside Museum, home to some of the world's finest cars, bicycles, ship models, trams and locomotives, interactive displays and the hugely popular historic Glasgow street scene. Later that day you will travel to your hotel allowing you to check in before your evening meal.

Thursday

You depart the hotel early this morning, and head towards Ingliston Showground for the full day at the Royal Highland Show, and enjoy a full programme of events. You depart the showground late afternoon and return to your hotel.

Friday

Today after checking out you travel to the National Museum for Rural life, discover how 300 years of farming and rural home life have shaped and altered Scotland's countryside in this large, purpose-built museum. See combine harvesters, tractors, threshers and many other inventions designed to make farming life more efficient and profitable, and find out how machines have increasingly replaced people in farming. Later that day you depart and return to Cairnryan for your return ferry crossing to Belfast.
